

Chantry House,
Bray,
Maidenhead.

July 5th 1879

My dear kind Papa! Again a most splendid & valuable addition to my store of books, from the most liberal of authors & friends! I cannot tell you how I shall, & do, value them all-feeling as I do, that I owe them entirely to his kindness, on which I can have no possible claim. Pray accept my very best & warmest thanks for so valuable a gift, which I should come & acknowledge in person, but that I am obliged to remain at home to receive an Antipodean visitor, who being a gay youth, I must not leave to the care of my two young companions-

Hoping to do so before long, may believe me, with best love to your dear daughter

my dear kind papa's very affectionate & grateful

Anne S. Wilson -

(My dear adopted Daughter)

